My husband and I are enjoying trips down memory lane as we complete the various lists in the book. We've had so many great trips, and it's fun to remember the great museums, sacred places, sports events, rivers we travelled, etc.

Huge fan of all of the Listography books! I haven't had time to write in a journal/diary in years but was given one of these as a gift and have since purchased all of the other ones. Great option if you don't have a ton of time but want to document your thoughts in a few words here and there. Fun to read back through later.

This is an awesome purchase, especially for the young adventurers. I bought this for myself at a local bookstore, and I can't help but get super excited about everything I am filling out. It's inspiring to scour the internet for all of the "natural wonders, formations, and phenomena" I want to see. On the other end of the spectrum, it includes "spiritual places", "islands", and "volunteer travel". The format is very well-organized, and if you are a list-maker like myself, you will immediately fall in love with this book. It covers every possible travel topic in a simple, easy to fill in fashion. I plan on keeping this small journal as long as I travel (which will hopefully last a lifetime)!

Purchased this book as a gift for my teenage daughter. She loves making lists and we had several vacations planned- so I thought this would be perfect for her on plane rides or something to do late at night. After going through it with her, I decided I want one too! It is a great tool to keep track of travel adventures, as well as planning for future activities.

This is a great road trip/memories book. My husband and I started filling this out on our last road trip, and we thoroughly enjoyed the memories and conversations sparked by the lists in the book. Would definitely recommend this to anyone!

This a great book. I am in the travel business and ordered a bunch of these to give my clients. My husband and I went thru one of them and laughed and discussed what our own answers would be and it brought back some great memories. I gave it to several members of our family for Christmas and they were very pleased.

Bought this as a gift for my cousin and she loved it! She can't wait to record her travels and to add more in the future!

Love love LOVE this book! Bought one as a gift for my sister & one for myself - super satisfied ^^
